

Announcing this years SCBWI Winchester Conference Illustrators Competition!

Undiscovered Voices* Tribute Challenge

The Brief

Contestants are requested to create a tribute illustration to one of the stories in the 2010 edition of Undiscovered Voices. Please read through the synopses (see next mail) and choose one to illustrate, as if it were a published stand-alone book. Please note, the competition is a tribute exercise only, the images will not be published.

Prize

PRIZE: Will include a free place at all the Illustrator Masterclass Series! All entries will be displayed at the Winchester Conference 13th-14th November and judged by guest illustrators and art directors from our speakers. The winning entry will be announced at the end of the Conference.

A/W Submission Guidelines

- * Maximum artwork size is A3.
- * Illustration can be a book cover or a text illustration to your chosen story, in colour or black & white.
- * If a book cover, typography is not essential, but artists are welcome to submit print-outs with type.
- * Before the Conference email a jpeg scan of the artwork (72dpi, maximum 1000 pixels tall or wide) to John at art@jshelley.com clearly stating your name and the story illustrated. The jpeg will be used to identify works and later displayed on a web gallery of entries after the Conference.
- * Clearly mark the completed artwork on the reverse with your name, contact details and the title and author of the story you've chosen to illustrate.

We recommend artists submit copies or print-outs of their work. Original artwork is accepted, however please understand SCBWI is not responsible for the safeguard or return of artwork.

Conference Attendees

Please bring your completed entry to the Conference and present the artwork during sign-in.

Postal Entries

If you're unable to attend the Conference please post your entry to:
John Shelley, 85A Harvist Road, London NW6 6HA
To arrive no later than 6th November (late entries will be left behind!).
The Winner will be announced at the end of the Conference.

Rules

- * The competition is open to SCBWI members only.
- * One submission per artist.

* Winning illustrations will not be published with the stories, this is purely a tribute to Undiscovered Voices, works submitted to the competition do not constitute any kind of contract with the authors or publishers.

* Artwork will be available for collection at the end of the Conference. Anything left behind at the end will be disposed of. Postal entries will not be returned.

Any questions? email John at art@jshelley.com

*****