

‘WRITING FOR THE EDUCATION MARKET’

The Society of Children’s Book Writers and Illustrators comes to Seven Stories

Saturday 25th November
6.30 -9.30 p.m

Grab a chance to network in the company of education writers and publishers.

Enjoy an unmissable evening in the company of esteemed education writer, Lynn Huggins-Cooper together with editors from education publishers including A & C Black. Lynn has written extensively for the education market, including many books on English, Maths and Science. She also writes articles for educational websites and magazines as well as having a regular slot in the Times Educational Supplement.

So book now for an evening of
-networking
-a FREE look around the fantastic Seven Stories
-wine and mince pies!

Cost: £6 for members £8 for non-members; group and concessionary rates available. There are limited places and tickets must be bought in advance. Please purchase by November 18th from Addy Farmer: northern@britishscbwi.org

Venue: Seven Stories, The Centre for Children’s Books, Newcastle.

Info: www.britishscbwi.org and www.sevenstories.org.uk

